

CEP Country Highlights Thailand

WGE SAM3

13 January 2009, Vientiane, Lao PDR

- 1. NSEC SEA has benefited from strong technical support and inputs from NESDB and ONEP
- 2. Thai expertise is a key aspect of the spatial planning and valuation components of the SEA
- 3. The Strategy and Action Plan for the NSEC is drawing upon the sectoral synergies established through the SEA
- 4. Series of lectures by EOC on SEA in Chulalongkorn University, and in Mahidol University in collaboration with ONEP

- 1. Tenasserim BCI pilot site established connecting Western Forest Complex with Kaeng Krachan Complex
- 2. Thailand Cabinet has acknowledged Tenasserim Corridor and has directed cooperation among relevant government agencies
- 3. Forest restoration activities commenced and 160ha completed
- 4. Strong public participation in BCI activities, including local government, school children, army etc.

- 1. Extensive national consultations conducted to reach consensus on priority concern identification and corresponding indicator selection
- 2. Commitment to mainstreaming environmental performance reporting across natural resources sector
- 3. Actively exploring EPA institutionalization options and integration into national socio-economic development planning